

Are You A Volunteer?

Have You Got What It Takes?

There's going to be a lot of you out there that want to get involved in the music festival and unfortunately as much as we want to we can't allow you all to help... that's far too many free tickets to give away 😊 Now our way of choosing our volunteers will be based on personal attributes rather than experience and knowledge. That doesn't mean if you're not chosen that you're not good enough for the position, in fact it could mean the opposite (so if you've ran a music festival prior to this all by yourself keep it quite you don't want to shoot yourself in the foot 😊) Now we will also be looking into the type of person you are, are you funny? Do you like to have a good laugh with mates? Do you get on with a good range of people? Are you outgoing? These are all good attributes to have, but the other thing we're looking for is adaptability and availability. Are you free on Saturday afternoons (not every Saturday afternoon)? Can you spare a few hours a week? If you can do all these things and you possess some of the attributes above... YOU'RE PERFECT 😊

What Will You Get From Being A Volunteer?

This is a chance not many young people get, we've only got a limited amount of spaces for volunteers to give away and those lucky ones that get the chance will be in for an educating experience. Not only will you learn how to put together an event for yourself in the future, you'll gather skills that can't be taught via education, personal attributes that you can develop in the future to make a success of yourself and to stand out from the rest of the crowd. We will offer references to all our volunteers and this is something that will look brilliant on your CV and not only that, this will make you feel great about yourselves, In short this is an amazing professional achievement as well as personal.

Not only this there's a possibility after all this is over for future events to take place in which you can get involved in, if you can show a good broad array of skills and attribute.

What We Expect From You...

Our main expectation from you is simple, 'Dedication & Loyalty' and enthusiasm to make this event work and run the way it should. Along with that we desire a sense of respect for the project and patience. We already have guessed the type of person that would apply to become a volunteer will be the kind of person were looking for, as it requires a certain type of person to do this job. But why do we expect so much from you...?

...Well that's simple, there's a lot of responsibility going to be hanging over your heads, you may be in charge of a certain department and your dedication to the task will be tested. All of you at one time will be dealing with money and we need to establish a trust with yourselves (not that we could ever imagine you doing anything like that).

Now with all the personal expectations from you out the way let's move on to what were looking for from volunteers...

... We first of all need your time, on some Saturdays we will be running sales desks in towns in and around Chester, for instance Ellesmere port, Wrexham etc... and we will want a few of you at each time, this will probably be run on a rotor so make sure when you apply you let us know if you are available on Saturdays. We will also need some of you to scout for local talent whether it is via the internet or approaching bands at their own gigs, if you see talent we want you to reel it in. Finally we want your ideas, we want you to be a part of this as much as we are and we really want you to get your hands dirty and show some enthusiasm, we will provide many ways for you to throw your ideas into what were doing so you can make your mark.

Pretty much the more you involve yourself in the project the more responsibility you'll get, so why not go for it, if you've got the time and want to do something that will not only help others but will also help yourself why not get involved. We can only promise a great time, new friends, professional experience and a big smile at the end of it...

We hope you're the person were looking for 😊
